

Overview of the Hungarian Aviation Industry

Small is beautiful...

Berlin 2004 May 13

Mihály Hideg
Chairman
HAIF

Introducing HAIF

- HAIF has been established in summer 2003
- An independent non-profit organization
- Founded by industry professionals

Mission Statement

To pursue the continuous growth and development of the Hungarian Aviation Industry...

Our vision

To become the catalyst and facilitator of the industry development process while several Hungarian companies becoming reliable and high quality suppliers of EU manufacturers and service providers of the aviation industry...

Project types supported by HAIF:

- Research and development
- Supplier development programs for SMEs
- Training program development
- Quality program development
- Software development & testing programs
- Offset programs
- Productivity improvement programs
- NPI programs
- Greenfield & JV & Privatization programs
- Airport & Business park development programs

Hungarian Aviation Industry Foundation

The Structure of the Hungarian Aviation Industry

Design/Development	3
Component Mfg	3
Ultralight Mfg	2
Parachute Mfg	1
Air balloon Mfg	1
Tools Mfg	3
MRO	26
Modification	1
Training	4
Consulting	2
Part sales	1
Calibration services	1
Engineering services	2
HR services	2
Marketing	2
Industrial organizations	2

The Hungarian Aviation Industry employs about 1500 people...

The Role of HAIF - providing SMEs with independent expertise

- Support SME-s to develop and grow
- Provide SME-s with the required professional information
- Help Hungarian SMEs to be registered to the central AeroSME database
- Organization of required training
- Participation in R&D projects
- Quality trainings/consulting
- Auditing
- Networking within the industry
- Organization of Conferences, workshops
- Participation in making studies for the industry/government
- AeroSME database updating
- Facilitation of establishment of supplier networks
- Coordination among ITDH, HgCAA, AECMA/ASD/AeroSME and HAIF
- Coordination among related industries - Airline/Aerospace, Aerospace/Automotive
- Coordination among Aerospace and Defence companies in Hungary

HAIF will support ASD top 10 priorities at our national level

Contact:

Mihály Hideg M.B.A. M.Sc.

Chairman

Tel: +36 1 294 1351

Mob: +36 30 3746145

Email: mihaly.hideg@axelero.hu

Hungarian Aviation Industry Foundation

Thank You For Your Attention!